No. 18-2005

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Grenada presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Trade of Grenada and has the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the latter's Note No. 312/05, dated April 20, 2005, which reads as follows:

The Government of Grenada and the Government of the People's Republic of China desirous of developing the friendly relations between the two countries, with regard to the appointment of an Honorary Consul in Macao by the Government of Grenada, and

Through friendly consultations,
Have agreed as follows:

1. The Government of the People's Republic of China agrees to the appointment of an honorary consul in Macao by the Government of Grenada, whose consular district shall cover the Macao Special Administrative Region (MSAR)
2. The Honorary Consul of Grenada in Macao shall exercise his/her consular functions within the scope as defined in the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations done on 24 April 1963, the relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China and the laws of MSAR.
3. The Government of the People's Republic of China will, in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations and the relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China, accord necessary assistance and facilities for the performance of the functions of the Honorary Consul of Grenada in Macao.

4. The Honorary Consul of Grenada in Macao must be a permanent resident of MSAR.
5. Grenada shall not maintain the honorary consular post upon its establishment of a career consular post in Macao.
6. The two sides shall properly handle consular issues between the two countries in the spirit of friendly consultations, and in accordance with The Vienna Convention on Consular Relations and international practice.

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Grenada has further honour, on behalf of the Government of the People's Republic of China, to confirm the foregoing points and that the Ministry's note along with the present note of reply shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments, which shall come into force as from the date of the present note.

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Trade the assurances of its highest consideration.
